

Declaration

We, on behalf of the Escola Profissional Cristóvão Colombo, express our full support for the nomination of Madeira Wine Traditions to be inscribed on UNESCO's Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Our institution, located in Funchal, Madeira, is an educational institution committed to the integral formation of its students, promoting values of citizenship, knowledge and respect for the cultural traditions of the region. With a diverse educational offer, it covers different levels of education and seeks to combine pedagogical excellence with the development of skills that prepare students for the challenges of the future. The school stands out for its integration of extracurricular activities that value local identity and encourage the active participation of the school community.

In addition to our commitment to formal education, our school plays an active role in preserving and promoting Madeira's cultural heritage, encouraging initiatives that connect students to Madeira's history and traditions. Events, training and collaborative projects enrich the school environment and provide practical and reflective experiences that strengthen the link between teaching and the cultural reality of the region. This dynamic and innovative pedagogical approach makes the school a benchmark in the regional educational panorama.
