

JUNTA DE FREGUESIA DA TABUA

Tabua - Ribeira Brava

Declaration

Manuel Inácio da Corte, President of the Parish Council of Tabua, based in Sítio da Praia, Tabua, 9350 - 412, Ribeira Brava, hereby expresses its full support for the application for Madeira wine to be recognized as Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO, promoted by the Madeira Wine Heritage Community and represented by the University of Madeira.

The historical, cultural, and identity importance of Madeira wine is recognized, an element that has been part of the daily life and collective memory of Madeiran communities for centuries, expressing the effort, dedication, and knowledge passed down from generation to generation.

At the local level, the Tabua Parish Council values the contribution of this application to the preservation of wine-making traditions, the encouragement of young people, and the recognition of agricultural work as an essential part of the rural and cultural identity of our parish.

As this is true, I hereby issue this statement, which is signed by me and stamped with the white seal of the Tabua Parish Council.

Tabua, on the 14th day of November 2025.

The President of the Tabua Parish Council

(Manuel Inácio da Corte)
