Carta de Consentimento

EN

On behalf of the Senior University of Ribeira Brava, we hereby express our consent and support for the presentation of the academic work entitled "Madeira Wine: Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity", developed by the student Carolina Gouveia from the University of Madeira.

The Senior University of Ribeira Brava has the mission of promoting active ageing and valuing regional cultural heritage. The topic addressed, centred on Madeira Wine and its recognition by UNESCO represents a relevant contribution to strengthening Madeiran identity as well as to the dissemination of local traditions and knowledge.

In this sense, we warmly welcome this academic initiative, which reinforces cooperation between educational institutions and the local community, promoting the sharing of knowledge and the appreciation of regional culture.
