Consent for the nomination of the Madeira Wine Traditions

We, on behalf of Tuna D'Elas – Female Musical group from the University of Madeira, express our support and consent for the inclusion of information regarding the participation of the group in the presentation dedicated to the nomination of the Madeira Wine traditions for inscription on UNESCO's Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Tuna D'Elas, as a Madeiran musical and cultural group, has the mission of promoting academic culture and traditional music, valuing artistic expressions and regional traditions. In this context, we participated, on October 16, in the presentation dedicated to the nomination of the Madeira Wine traditions for inscription on the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Madeira Wine, with its unique history and production methods, is more than a beverage — it is a symbol of our cultural identity. Its tradition reflects a know-how passed down through generations, representing the ingenuity and dedication of the Madeiran people.

During the presentation, Tuna D'Elas contributed to the cultural and symbolic atmosphere of the event through traditional Madeiran music, strengthening the connection between art, heritage, and the collective memory of our region.

We hereby give our consent for the name of Tuna D'Elas and our participation in this activity to be included in the nomination. We believe that this initiative will contribute to the recognition of the Madeira Wine traditions on the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity, reinforcing the role of traditions in social cohesion and in the appreciation of regional identity.
