

Consent for the Application of Madeira Wine

To the UNESCO Intergovernmental Committee

On behalf of D'Olival Azeites & Cia, we express our full support for the application of Madeira Wine for inclusion in the UNESCO Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

D'Olival Azeites & Cia, located at Rua Poiais de São Bento, n° 81, 1200-347, Lisbon, is a space dedicated to the appreciation and promotion of traditional Portuguese products, with a special focus on olive oil and products linked to the culture and gastronomic heritage of Portugal and Madeira.

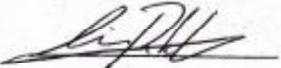

One of the owners, Mr. Lino Valter, has shown a deep commitment to promoting the Portuguese and Madeiran food and wine heritage, recognizing the importance of initiatives that preserve wine-making and cultural traditions.

D'Olival Azeites & Cia supports the nomination of Madeira Wine to UNESCO's Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity, as it believes that this distinction will contribute to the international recognition of Madeira Wine as a symbol of the identity of the Autonomous Region of Madeira, reinforcing the historical, cultural, and economic importance of this secular tradition.

The inclusion of Madeira Wine on this prestigious list values the practices, knowledge, and traditions passed down from generation to generation, ensuring their continuity and strengthening food and wine tourism in Portugal.

For these reasons, D'Olival Azeites & Cia unreservedly endorses and supports the nomination of Madeira Wine to this prestigious UNESCO list.
